

REGULATIONS FOLK COMPETITION

61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020

The Promotion Committee of the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar announces this Folk music competition that will take place in the amphitheater of Quinta Vergara in Viña del Mar, Chile. The Festival takes place from the 24th of February to March 1st of 2020 and is based on the following principles:

1. OBJECTIVE

The Objective of the International Song Festival of Viña del Mar is to promote the development and stimulate popular music worldwide. In turn, it seeks to be a platform of exhibition and recognition for every author, composer and emergent interpreter who has an outstanding work in the musical area. Hereby, the Festival of Viña del Mar 2020 is a contest that stimulates the artistic and cultural development in every participating nation, promoting artistic relations between different countries.

2. INVITATION

The Promotion Committee of the Festival of Viña del Mar 2020 invites every Author, Composer and interpreter, Chilean and foreign in general, to take part in the process of selection of the foreign songs and Chilean song that will be part of the Competition – Folk Gender – at the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. The selection procedure of the songs for the Folk Competition and everything concerning the participation of Chilean and foreign interpreters should follow along these regulations. These regulations will be published in one (1) daily national newspaper and, in a permanent form, on the websites www.tvn.cl, www.13.cl, www.munivina.cl, and also across different record companies with headquarters in Chile. In the foreign countries, the announcement will be spread through a press release to the mass media, Society of Authors, and musical companies, with these Regulations attached. Its diffusion will be realized by the Society of Authors, embassies or consulates of Chile in the world, and on the following websites: www.tvn.cl y www.13.cl. In addition, the competition will be broadcasted through the realization and broadcasting of spots through TVN and Canal 13's screens and international television networks.

3. PARTICIPATING SONGS

A total of six (6) songs will participate at the Folk competition in the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020, of which there will be five (5) songs foreign and one (1) song will be Chilean. Of these five songs, it can be reserved a special quota for the country whose representative has been elected through a foreigner TV Show or similar, after a special call to select the song that will represent the country at the Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. If the program is developed, this will be the only way in which nationals of that country involved in the song selection for the competition. The Chilean song could also be chosen through a TV show made in Chile or the like, and in that case, the program will choose the Chilean song. Both the Municipality of Viña del Mar and TVN and Canal 13 will ensure the successful completion of this show, especially as regard to the choice of participating songs and definition of the winning song that will represent each country in this competition. The nationality of a song's author, according to these regulations, will determine to which country the song belongs. If there are co-authors involved, the authors participating in the registration form should indicate the nationality of any one of these authors with the purpose of establishing the country that the song will represent.

The nationality of the interpreter shall not be considered for the purposes of determining the country to which the song represents.

The registration of all songs taking part in the Folk competition of the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020 must have the following requirements:

3.1 All the songs that take part in the Folk Competition must not have taken part in any Folk festival and /or national competition previous to February 24, 2020.

3.2 The songs must not exceed three minutes of length (180 seconds).

3.3 The author and/or composer may register a maximum of two (2) songs, and only one (1) of them will be selected.

3.4 Neither Canal 13's, TVN's, Iberoamericana Radio Chile and Fox Network Group Latinamerica (or its parent companies) nor Viña del Mar City Hall employee can participate as a competitor in the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. Neither can relatives until the fourth direct degree in family line nor other close relatives. This article could serve as enough ground to disqualify a song or songs that are related to people that do not respect this rule. In this case, TVN and Canal 13 and the Promotion Committee, at its entire discretion and at any time, can select another competitor that has complied the requirements foresaid.

5.1 Selection Committee

A commission made up of 5 members: one on Behalf of Sociedad Chilena de Derechos de Autor (SCD), one on behalf of Organization de Editores de Música de Chile (AGEM), prominent music professionals and one member of the Municipality of Viña form the Selection Committee of songs. The appointment of the members of this Committee shall be made by the Commission for the Promotion of the 61th International Song Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. The members of said Commission may be replaced by others of similar relevance in case of impossibility or absence. In addition, TVN and Canal 13 and the Municipalidad of Viña del Mar may appoint two (2) members to the Selection Committee of songs, which must meet the following characteristics:

- (a) Representative of an international organization and prestigious career in the music industry;
- (b) Outstanding journalist or music critic, or representative of any national media.
- (c) Outstanding musician and / or national or international academic.

The choice of songs nominated for competition, will be agreed by the members of this Committee, who will select participants by discretion songs that fully meet the requirements set in these rules. It will be elected only one song by country.

5.2 Foreign songs

Of all participants in the foreign competition, the Selection Committee will designate (5) countries among all other songs from the current call and invitation. In case of the participation of a representative chosen through a foreign TV Show or similar, the Selection Committee will appoint only the remain songs regarding the section 3.

5.3 Chilean Song

Of all participants of chilean songs, the Selection Committee will designate the chilean song that will represent our country in the Folk Competition, but the case that a TV Show or similar is used to select the song, in that case the Chilean song will not be selected by the Selection Committee.

5.4 Applicants that have been choosen by the selection committee will be notified of their classification for the production of Viña del Mar Festival 2020 through the email reported in the application tab. From that moment, (the) performer (s) of the selected song cannot record or participate in any interviews, programs, concerts or other massive musical activities in the territory of the Republic of Chile, until the end of Festival Internacional de la Canción de Viña del Mar” for the year 2020.
terminada la 61° versión del “Festival Internacional de la Canción de Viña del Mar”, correspondiente al año 2020.

6. ORCHESTRA AND CHORUS OF ACCOMPANIMENT

6.1 The songs selected to participate in the Folk competition of the Festival, must be interpreted together with the “Official Orchestra and Choir” that will be in charge of the Musical Director of the 61th International Singing Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. The characteristics of the instrumental formations and the choir will be announced to the selected participants at the proper time.

6.2 Chilean and Foreign competitors selected shall deliver to the Festival’s Production a list with the instrumentation or orchestration necessary for his/her performance. The deadline to report the orchestral and/or choral requirements begins three days after the selection of the participating songs is made, and ends on November 20th of 2019.

6.3 If one of the competitors wants to add an instrument that isn’t included in the standard equipment of the Official Orchestra and Choir, in benefit of his/her performance, this could be added only and always with approval of the Musical Direction of the Festival of Viña del Mar 2020. All costs arising under this heading shall be charge to the competitor, as also the costs of the performance of musician (s), which aren’t registered in the “registration form”.

For these effects, Chilean and foreign Composers and/or authors will have until November 20th of 2019 to make available to the Director of the Orchestra of the Festival, the orchestral arrangements in the orchestral equipment.

However, the Festival of Viña 2020’s Production reserves the right to accept or deny the request to add any extra instrument for the convenience of the show.

6.4 The Musical Director of the Festival of Viña 2020 will take responsibility of composing the necessary orchestra and musical tools for the songs that will be sung by competitors. The Musical director will make his best effort to create an orchestration that demonstrates the musical value of the song and highlight the artistic status of its interpreter.

6.5 Songs taking part in the competition shall be performed live in the language that the author created the composition, not necessarily the original language of the nationality of the interpreter.

6.6 Each interpreter may have a musical sequence support (in a professional quality) with the final version of the song to be used in the presentations, during the week of the Folk competition of the International Singing Festival of Viña 2020, together with the “Official Orchestra and Choir”. The decision to include it or not, shall be at exclusively discretion of Festival of Viña del Mar 2020’s Production.
